Interpret meaning and draw inferences: Going beyond literal comprehension to understand implicit meanings and underlying messages is essential.

Section B: The Argumentative Essay This section requires you to write a well-structured argumentative essay based on a provided stimulus. This stimulus might be a quotation, a short text, or a scenario. Success in this section of AICE English Language Paper 2 depends on:

Developing a clear argument: Your essay needs a focused thesis statement and supporting evidence throughout.

Analyze the structure: How is the text organized? What are the key sections and how do they relate to each other?

Effective Writing Strategies:

Plan your response: Before you start writing, outline your ideas to ensure a logical flow.

Use clear and concise language: Avoid overly complex sentence structures and unfamiliar vocabulary.

Support your claims with evidence: Use direct quotations and textual references to support your arguments.
