The Historical Context of AM Resorts Master Agent Training

AMResorts, a collection of luxury resort brands, including Secrets, Breathless, Zoëtry, Sunscape, Dreams, and Now, recognized early on the need for a robust training program for its master agents. The initial training likely focused on product knowledge – familiarizing agents with the unique features and amenities of each resort brand. As the company grew and the travel landscape shifted (influenced by the rise of online booking platforms and changing consumer preferences), the AM Resorts master agent training program undoubtedly evolved. Early versions probably concentrated on in-person workshops and sales presentations. Over time, this likely expanded to incorporate online learning modules, interactive webinars, and digital marketing strategies. This adaptation to incorporate modern training methodologies is crucial for remaining competitive and relevant.

The book marked a turning point in Zen literature in its critical reevaluation of the enlightenment experience, which the author believes has often been emphasized at the expense of other important aspects of Zen training. In addition, Zen Training goes beyond the first flashes of enlightenment to explore how one lives as well as trains in Zen. The author also draws many significant parallels between Zen and Western philosophy and psychology, comparing traditional Zen concepts with the theories of being and cognition of such thinkers as Heidegger and Husserl.
