H1: Understanding Your 1950 Dodge Business Coupe

The 1950 Dodge Business Coupe represents a fascinating chapter in automotive history. This stylish and practical vehicle, designed for both business and personal use, boasted a sturdy build and attractive design that still captivates enthusiasts today. This guide aims to equip owners and prospective buyers with the knowledge needed to appreciate, maintain, and restore their 1950 Dodge Business Coupe.

H2: Mechanical Specifications and Overview of the 1950 Dodge Business Coupe

The 1950 Dodge Business Coupe was offered with a variety of engine options, primarily flathead six-cylinder engines. Understanding the specific engine in your vehicle is crucial for accurate maintenance and repair. Common features include:

Engine Options: The most prevalent engines were the 230 cubic inch flathead six-cylinder, known for its reliability but also its thirst for fuel.

Transmission: Typically a three-speed manual transmission, though some models may have optional automatic transmissions.

Brakes: Hydraulic drum brakes on all four wheels.

Suspension: Independent front suspension and a solid rear axle.

H2: Common Issues and Troubleshooting for Your 1950 Dodge Business Coupe

Like any classic car, the 1950 Dodge Business Coupe has its share of potential problems. Common issues include:

Electrical System: Age-related issues with wiring, the generator, and the starter motor are frequent.

Brake System: Brake lines can corrode, requiring careful inspection and potentially replacement.

Engine Issues: Carburation problems, valve adjustments, and ignition system malfunctions are common concerns.

Body Rust: Rust is a significant threat to the body and chassis of any classic car, especially in areas prone to moisture and salt.

H2: Restoration and Maintenance Best Practices for Your 1950 Dodge Business Coupe

Restoring a 1950 Dodge Business Coupe is a rewarding but challenging undertaking. Key aspects include:

Parts Sourcing: Finding original or high-quality reproduction parts can be a significant challenge.

Networking with classic car clubs and online forums is essential.

Bodywork Repair: Addressing rust and body damage requires specialized skills and tools. Professional assistance may be necessary.

Paint and Finish: Choosing the right paint and achieving a professional finish requires patience and attention to detail.

Mechanical Restoration: Engine rebuilds, transmission overhauls, and brake system upgrades should be carried out by experienced mechanics.

H2: Finding and Evaluating a 1950 Dodge Business Coupe

Before purchasing a 1950 Dodge Business Coupe, careful inspection is crucial. Consider the following:

Body Condition: Assess the extent of rust and body damage.

Mechanical Condition: Test drive the car, paying close attention to engine performance, braking, and steering.

Documentation: Check for any available service records or documentation that can provide valuable insight into the car's history.

H2: The Value and Appreciation of Your 1950 Dodge Business Coupe

The value of a 1950 Dodge Business Coupe varies considerably depending on its condition, originality, and completeness. Well-restored examples can command significant prices within the collector car market.

Conclusion

Owning a 1950 Dodge Business Coupe is a rewarding experience for car enthusiasts. By understanding its mechanical nuances, addressing common issues proactively, and committing to proper maintenance and restoration, you can ensure that this classic car remains a source of pride and enjoyment for years to come. This guide provides a foundation for your journey, but further research and consultation with experienced mechanics and restoration specialists are strongly recommended.

1950 dodge business coupe: American Cars, 1946-1959 J. "Kelly" Flory, Jr., 2008-11-24 From the resumption of automobile production at the close of World War II through the 1950s, the American auto industry would see the births and deaths of several manufacturers, great technological advances, and an era of dramatic styling as a prospering nation asserted its growing mobility. Cars of this period are among the most iconic vehicles ever built in the United States: the 1949 Ford, the remarkable Studebaker designs of 1950 and 1953, the 1955-1957 Chevrolets, the Forward Look Chrysler products, the ill-fated Edsel and many others. This comprehensive reference book details every model from each of the major manufacturers (including independents such as Kaiser-Frazer and Crosley but excluding very low-volume marques such as Tucker) from model years 1946 through 1959. Year by year, it provides an overview of the industry and market, followed by an individual report on each company: its main news for the year (introductions or cancellations of models, new engines and transmissions, advertising themes, sales trends etc.); its production figures and market status; and its powertrain offerings, paint colors and major options. The company's models are then detailed individually with such information as body styles, prices, dimensions and weights, standard equipment and production figures. Nearly 1,000 photographs are included.

1950 dodge business coupe: The Dodge Brothers Charles K. Hyde, 2005-04-08 Biography of John and Horace Dodge and the history of their company. At the start of the Ford Motor Company in 1903, the Dodge Brothers supplied nearly every car part needed by the up-and-coming auto giant. After fifteen years of operating a successful automotive supplier company, John and Horace Dodge again changed the face of the automotive market in 1914 by introducing their own car. The Dodge Brothers automobile carried on their names even after their untimely deaths in 1920, which led to its sale in 1925 to New York bankers and subsequent purchase in 1928 by Walter Chrysler. Hyde not only details the brothers' lives and influence on automotive manufacturing and marketing trends in the early part of the twentieth century but also their civic contributions to Detroit, their hiring of African Americans and women, and their often anonymous charitable contributions to local organizations. Despite their achievements and their critical role in the early success of Henry Ford, John and Horace Dodge are usually overlooked in histories of the early automotive industry, but Hyde has put them front and center again to appropriately credit their lasting legacy.

1950 dodge business coupe: Old Car Detective Bill Sherk, 2011-03-18 In this hilarious collection of old car stories, Canada's very own Old Car Detective Bill Sherk presents 80 of his favourite stories from all 10 provinces, spanning the years from 1925 to 1965. In this book you will meet the man in New Brunswick who chopped the top off his 1927 Whippet sedan in honour of the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II; the young fellow from Kingston, Ontario, who thought his 1937 Ford coach looked better with all four fenders taken off; the owner of a 1947 Hudson that burned so much oil he had to wear a snorkel mask while driving it; the father who borrowed his son's hot-rodded '53 Monarch (built only in Canada!) and got pulled over by the police for street racing; and the grandmother who moved from England to Canada and drove her Morris Minor on the wrong side of the road. Behind every old car there's a story waiting to be told, all the way from your grandparents' Model T Ford to the Mustang you drove in high school. All the stories and photographs in this book are in chronological order from 1925 to 1965, giving you a 40-year journey through Canada's rich automotive heritage and brought to life by the people who owned and drove the cars of yesteryear - and some still do! PART ONE (1925 to 1942) takes you from the middle of the Roaring Twenties to February 1942, when the Second World War brought automobile production to a halt for three long years. PART TWO (1946 to 1965) takes you through the Baby Boom years when cars driven by Canadians went through many exciting changes in styling and engineering. If you have ever owned (or still own) a car that was built between 1925 and 1965, turn to the last page in this book to see how you can send in your story for Bill Sherk's next book.

1950 dodge business coupe: Barn Find Road Trip Tom Cotter, 2015-09-28 Great collector cars are still out there--just waiting to be found! Sadly, there is very little reality in reality TV. That wouldn't be so bad except for the fact that these shows are the only TV shows for the barn-find collector car aficionado. Barn Find Road Trip is the antidote to all the manufactured collector reality shows. It's a real-world, barn-find banzai run in which auto archaeologist Tom Cotter, his car collector pal Brian Barr, and photographer Michael Alan Ross embarked on a 14-day collector-car-seeking adventure with no predetermined destinations. It's barn-find freestyle!

Roaming the Southeast, they documented their day-to-day car search in photos and through stories and interviews. This trip is absolutely real and the same kind of junket any gearhead with the skills, knowledge, and time can undertake. Cotter and company hit the road in Cotter's 1939 Ford Woody, the kind of car that opened doors and started the conversations that revealed where interesting cars were squirreled away. The result? The discovery of over 1,000 collector cars and some of the most amazing barn-find stories Cotter has yet unearthed, all accompanied by Ross' evocative photography. If you love stories of automotive adventure, this is the book for you!

1950 dodge business coupe: Rockin' Garages Tom Cotter, Ken Gross, 2012-11-19 Ken Gross is one of the premiere auto writers in the United States. This is a terrific book... a great Father's Day gift and a great read. - Jay Leno Cars and rock 'n roll have always gone hand in hand. Whether it's a garage band piling into some decrepit rig to get to the next gig or a killer guitar riff blasting from a Mustang, rock 'n roll keeps us moving when we're behind the wheel. It's no surprise, then, that some of the music world's big names are also serious car guys. Jimmie Vaughn, Billy Joel, Brian Johnson (AC/DC), J Geils, Brad Whitford (Aerosmith), and others each spend as much time behind the wheel as they can. Hot rods, customs, muscle cars, motorcycles, race cars, and sports cars—the variety of vehicles is as eclectic as rock 'n roll itself. Rockin' Garages showcases top performers, their cars, and their garages. Authors Tom Cotter and Ken Gross profile each musician, revealing the story behind their moto-lust and what drives their car collecting. Each profile is complemented by Michael Alan Ross' top-notch photography. Rockin' Garages puts you behind the wheel with some of your favorite musicians.

1950 dodge business coupe: "Auto" Biography Dason Wowk, 2024-05-23 In late 2020, as the world prepared to leave an unforgettable year behind, Dason Wowk began planning a one-of-a-kind project to bring some positivity to his friends and family during dark times. The idea was simple yet profound: every day for a whole year, starting on the first day of 2021, he would write a short story on social media about a vehicle that had left a mark on him. Wowk's "Auto" Biography compiles his stories and captures the essence of a lifelong passion for all things automotive, a love passed down from father to son with the gift of a tiny toy car. From a small tractor in his grandfather's yard to exotic dream cars at the racetrack, every vehicle tells a story. "Auto" Biography is not just about cars; it's about the power of memories and an enduring love for vehicles. Buckle up, take a ride through the author's incredible year of wheels and memories, and ignite your passion for the road ahead.

1950 dodge business coupe: The Trapper's Last Shot John Yount, 2014-10-14 A powerhouse novel about an idealistic young man's return to a rural Southern town simmering with prejudice and anger Separation papers in hand, Beau Jim Early sets out one hot, dry August morning in 1960 from Fort Jackson, South Carolina, for his brother's farm in Cocke County, Georgia. After six years in the army, civilian life is not as easy as it looks. In short order, Beau Jim gets conned by a shoe-shine boy, buys a Studebaker with bad brakes, and spends nearly every cent of the $400 he won in a crap game the night before. But Beau Jim is a man who can roll with the punches, and the drive into his hometown is as exhilarating as he thought it would be. His brother's farm, however, is a different story. Older by fifteen years, Dan Early has given up his apartment and gone into debt to buy a barren piece of land that his wife, Charlene, calls a "wore out patch of misery." Sheila, their seven-year-old daughter, is unnaturally slow and shy and has been held back in school—a source of great shame. As Beau Jim hustles pool with Claire, a former high school classmate whose secret life is not as safe as he believes it to be, and makes time with Yancey, a voluptuous redhead finally looking to settle down, Dan's frustration and pity for himself mount. When Charlene sparks his rage, he commits an act so shocking and horrific it brings the whole county to its knees. A spellbinding tale of decent people fighting for their lives in a world overrun with poverty and ignorance, The Trapper's Last Shot is vintage John Yount—forceful, finely crafted, and absolutely unforgettable.

1950 dodge business coupe: Kustom Kemps of America Jerry Titus, 1993-01-01 (from the book) The year was 1978 and I was sitting in the back booth of the Pizza Hut in Mulvane, Kansas, splitting a deep pan with my good friend, Darryl Starbird. Our friendship was close, and I had always respected his opinion on just about anything to do with the automobile, and especially the "kustom" vehicle. Not only is Darryl a champ at building kustom creations, he is also one of the top auto show producers in the U.S. For some 21 years I had been in the shadow of this high-energy, often unbelievable, man helping him build cars and produce car shows—a schooling that isn't available in any six-month course or college anywhere. I had cruised with him on the high roads, and crashed with him on the low shoulders. Believe me, auto show producing is not for the weak or conservative. But my interest was up, boosted by a recent writeup on '49-'51 Mercs, and front cover spread of a chopped '51 Mercury, by Street Rodder magazine, which at the time was predominantly a "pre-'48" street rod magazine. Someone shared an interest I felt I might be the[...]"

1950 dodge business coupe: Route 66 Barn Find Road Trip Tom Cotter, 2016-10-15
Abandoned cars on America's most iconic abandoned road. Sounds like a great idea for a road trip. For a nation that loves the idea of the road, there is no more legendary ribbon of highway than the 2,451 miles comprising historic Route 66. Along the Mother Road lies the detritus of the automotive age: motels, roadside attractions, diners, service stations, drive-ins, and dives. Hidden in, around, and behind its buildings or abandoned along its roadside hide collector cars, lost trucks, and moldering motorcycles. How could there be a better destination for automotive archaeologist Tom Cotter? In Route 66 Barn Find Road Trip Cotter and his BBF (best barn finder) pal Brian Barr jump on Route 66, just outside Chicago, seeking rusted gold in every state Route 66 passes through. Along the way, ace lensman Michael Alan Ross documents their finds, mishaps, and various adventures. Starting in the Midwest and barreling through Oklahoma, Texas, and New Mexico, the barn-find bunch continues on to Arizona before completing their quest in Santa Monica, California. You'll never guess what automotive treasure they see peeking out from corroded garages and behind weary buildings along the way. You can bet every awesome barn find was investigated and recorded in Route 66 Barn Find Road Trip. Whether you've only dreamed of retracing US 66 or are familiar with its path but never considered car hunting there, Route 66 Barn Find Road Trip will take you on the trip of a lifetime. Hop in; you can ride shotgun.
