Serpentine Belt: The main component, responsible for powering various accessories.

Crankshaft Pulley: The primary driver pulley, powered by the engine's crankshaft.

Power Steering Pump Pulley: Provides power to the power steering system.

Alternator Pulley: Generates electrical power for the vehicle's electrical system.

Air Conditioning Compressor Pulley: Powers the air conditioning compressor.

Water Pump Pulley (if belt-driven): Circulates coolant through the engine.

Idler Pulleys and Tensioners: Guide the belt and maintain proper tension.

2007 pontiac g6 belt diagram: Boyington Oak Mary S. Palmer, 2019 This story is based on events that have since become folklore in Mobile, Alabama. It is about a nineteen-year-old printer, Charles R.S. Boyington, who was unjustly convicted and hanged for killing his best friend in 1835. During this period, the overwhelming majority of the people of Mobile considered all individuals as either God-fearing or evil, without exception. After learning of Boyington's atheistic beliefs, the court of public opinion swung toward him as the guilty party. Exacerbated with knowledge of his checkered past and his inconsistent testimonies, the people gave more weight to the flimsy circumstantial evidence against him. All this coalesced in working up the citizenry into such a state of frenzy that it served to strangle any impartiality that they otherwise might have had. The heightened public outrage frightened off any potential witnesses for the defense and biased the jurors and judges to a point that the legal process turned into a sham, with a guilty verdict a foregone conclusion. Boyington's articulation skills and obvious intelligence meant little in the abatement of these preformed prejudices. Convicted by an unqualified jury in 1834 using only circumstantial evidence, he was shackled in Mobile's first jail in 1834 where he wrote poetry to his fiancée to survive. As he predicted would happen to prove his innocence, a tree grew on his gravesite and still stands 175 years later in the Church St. Graveyard.
